IMPORTANT NOTICE

Important Notice - Liquor Control Act 1988 Liability of licensee for loss of property of lodger (Liquor Control Act of 1988. Part 4, Division 6, Section 107).

A licensee is not liable, beyond such amount as may be prescribed, to a lodger for loss of or damage to the property of the lodger while the property is on the licensed premises, or premises to which section 105(3) applies, unless -

- the property was lost or damaged due to the willful act, default or neglect of the licensee or a person in the employment of the licensee;
- the property was entrusted to the licensee expressly for safekeeping and the lodger complied with the requirements of the licensee with respect to safekeeping; or
- the licensee did not, at the time the lodger brought the property onto the licensed premises, have displayed, in a manner easily visible to potential lodgers, a notice indicating that liability for loss or damage to the property of a lodger may be limited to the prescribed amount.

Liability of Licensee (Liquor Control Regulations 1989. Regulation 16)

For the purposes of section 107 a licensee is not liable to a lodger beyond the amount of $200 per item of property lost or damaged.
